

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 13. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, Dated Oct. 13.

Letters from Lisbon assure us, that the Amirante of Castile is arriv'd there, with the Marquess d'Alcanizas his Nephew.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Oct. 14. We have receiv'd the Confirmation of the Arrival of the Plate Fleet in the Port of Vigo in Galicia, on the 22d Ult. under the Convoy of 23 of the King's Ships, commanded by the Count de Chasteaurenault, and that 2 other Ships of that Fleet, who were separated from the rest on the way, are arriv'd at St. Andro, convoy'd by 3 other French Men of War.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, Dated Oct. 13.

We have Advice from Italy, that the King of Spain left the Army on the 2d instant; before his departure he gave the Order of the Golden Fleece to the Duke de Vendome, and several fine Spanish Horses; he made Presents likewise to some of the Principal Officers. He is convoy'd by 1800 Men.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Oct. 14.

They write from Italy of the 3d, that the King of Spain left the Army the day before, to lye that night at Cremona, on the third at Lodi, and on the 4th at Milan, where he will give Audience to the Venetian Ambassadors Extraordinary.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Octob. 13.

Basil, Oct. 7. Prince Lewis of Baden is come within a League of this City, upon which our Magistrates have sent Deputies to compliment him. The Generals of the Troops of the Allies, will hold a great Council of War to day; mean time the French have intrench'd themselves so strongly on the German side of the Rhine, that it will be very difficult to dislodge them; but the Imperialists are throwing up such Works against them, that the Enemy will not be able to advance into the Country. A great number of the Peasants are summon'd into the Imperial Camp to perfect those Works. The Elector of Bavaria has exacted Contributions all over Suabia, and has laid up great Magazines of Oats and Hay at Ulm and Memmingen.

Frankfort, Oct. 11. They write from the Upper Rhine, that Prince Lewis of Baden is posted at Frybourg, to prevent the Conjunction of the French with the Bavarians. The rest of the Imperial Troops are at Bischoweiler, under the command of the Markgrave of Bareith. Marshal Carinat is broke up from Strasburg and march'd higher up; having quitted the Forts about Wantzenaw, and put the Men that were in them into Strasburg. The King and Queen of the Romans will leave Weynheym to day, and go to Aschaffembourg, where the Elector of Ments will entertain them, and from thence they will return to Vienna by Wartheim and Nuremberg. Two days ago Lieutenant General Dopf pass'd thro' this City to go to the King of the Romans; he is expected back in 2 days. We hear that the Hussars near Dillinghen have taken 3 Ships belonging to the Bavarians laden with Provisions, and have carried the Provisions in Carts to Heydrichheim, where a Body of Troops is posted.

Cologne, Oct. 13. The Dutch Troops that lately arriv'd here, have been joyn'd by several Regiments of Hesse-Casselers and Prussians, and lye encamp'd before one of our Gates, in all to the number of 20000 Men. To day the Markgrave Albert of Brandenburg, with the Prince of Saxe-Hilberhausen and other Generals, came into this City, and made a Visit to the Prince of Saxe Zeyts. The Elector of Cologne had formerly assur'd the Citizens of Bonn, that they had nothing to apprehend as long as he should continue among them; but last Tuesday he warn'd them to provide for their own Security, for that he was no longer in a Condition to protect them; upon which several of them are come hither with their Effects; but the Count de Coigny, the French Commander in Bonn, will not suffer any Provisions or Bedding to be carry'd out. Yesterday morning the Elector of Cologne went from Bonn towards Luxemburg, accompanied by Count Tallard, Messieurs St. Maurice and Des Alleurs, the Chancellor Karrig and others, under a great Convoy of Horse and Dragoons. Several German Officers took that Opportunity to retire out of the City. Bonn, and the Fort on the other side of the Rhine, are garrison'd with several Battallions of French, 2 Regiments of Swiss, 3 of the Elector's Regiments of Foot and one of Dragoons. 'Tis reported that the Elector should say as he was going out, That he had rather be a Slave to France than to the Chapter of Liege. The French have abandon'd Lulsdorf after having set it on fire. The Dutch have protested against the Neutrality which this City hath entred into; and the Prince of Saxe Zeits has demanded of our Magistrates, 1. To disannull the Neutrality. 2. To fortifie Duyts at their own charge. 3. To lay a Boat-Bridge over the Rhine and keep it in repair. 4. To receive what Forces he shall think convenient into the City. 5. To furnish 8 Pieces of Cannon, 4 Mortars, and Ammunition proportionable; Falcines and other Materials to be employ'd against Bonn.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Octob. 17.

Hamburg, Oct. 13. Our Advices from Poland give us great hopes of a speedy Peace. They write from Berlin, that an Alliance is concluded between the Emperor and the King of Sweden, by which the latter is to furnish 8000 Men to the Emperor, as soon as the Peace is made in Poland.

Hague, Oct. 15. The Earl of Winchelsea is arriv'd here, and will proceed to the Court of Hannover.

London, Oct. 12. This day arriv'd Letters from the Army under the Earl of Marlborough from before Liege, dated Oct. 16. N. S. with the following Advices;

Advices, On Thursday last at 12 at night the Army decamp'd, pass'd the River Jaar by break of day, and came before Liege about 3 in the Afternoon. The Enemy having notice of our March, decamp'd early the same morning with great Precipitation, leaving behind them their Tools with which they were working on the Fortifications of Tongres, and march'd to Orp le grand near Borcworm.

Upon our arrival we found the Suburb of St. Walbourg, leading to the Citadel, in Flames; the French Garrison, consisting of 12 Battalions, after having set it on Fire and destroy'd about 100 Houses, retir'd with 8 Battalions into the Citadel, and the other 4 into the Chartreuse.

The same Evening the Chapter and Magistracy sent Deputies to his Excellency our General to propose a Treaty, and on Saturday 3 of the Chapter and 3 of the Magistracy came out, and the Articles being agreed on, and sign'd by his Excellency, the Deputies of the States General, and those from the Chapter, &c. a Detachment of our Troops took Possession that night of one of the Gates, and yesterday 6 Battalions of Foot, 3 English and 3 Dutch, march'd into the Town under the command of my Lord Cutts.

Yesterday morning our Artillery came up the Maes. We are employ'd in making Fascines, and shall begin to attack the Citadel to-morrow night. The Margrave Albrecht of Brandenburg has sent advice from his Camp at Efferen, dated on the 12th, That he had joyn'd the Detachment from Ruremond, and that after he had given the Troops one day's rest, he would march to Bombard Bonn. From whence the Elector and Count Tallard are gone (after having chang'd the Garrison by taking out the Elector's and putting in French Troops) to joyn Marshal Boufflers.

Falmouth, Oct. 8. This day was sent in here, a Ship of 22 Guns, taken by a Dutch Caper, from the West Indies. And Hendrick Henderson Commander of the Curtill, has taken a French Privateer of 6 Guns and 52 Men of Brest; and a French Ship of 16 Guns, bound for the West Indies.

Dartmouth, Oct. 9. On the 7th came in the Sancta Cruz of and from Malta, but last from Cadiz, he reports, that he left our Grand Fleet off of Cape St. Vincent, steering Westward, Wind East.

London, Oct. 12. Her Majesty came this Evening to Kensington, and will dine to-morrow at St. James's.

WHereas in this and other Papers publish'd on Saturday last, an Advertisement from Bath was inserted by Dr. Salmon, wherein one Dr. Tho. Gardiner is stiled Her Majesties Chief Surgeon; we think our selves oblig'd to disabuse the World, and to beg Pardon of Mr. Sergeant Bernard, who has the Honour of being not only Her Majesties Chief Surgeon, but of being the Only Surgeon to Her Royal Person; Mr. Thomas Gardiner only officiating upon that Occasion in the absence of the Sergeant Surgeon; with whose Attendance at the Bath, Her Majesty was graciously pleas'd to dispense.

A Large House and Garden in Little-Britain over against the Sign of Tangier near West Smithfield, held of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, in which there is a Term for 28 Years to come from Michaelmas next, is to be Sold or Lett: Enquire at the House and you may know further.

††† A Doctor in Physick, Cures all the Degrees, and Indispositions, in Venereal Persons; and by a most easie, safe, and expeditious Method: He likewise gives his Advice in all Diseases, and Prescribes a Cure. Dr. Harbrough (a Graduate Physician) in Great Knight-Riders-Street; near Doctors-Commons.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE Art of English Poetry: Containing, I. Rules for making Verses. II. A Dictionary of Rhymes. III. A Collection of the most Natural, Agreeable, and Noble Thoughts, viz. Allusions, Similes, Descriptions, and Characters, of Persons and Things; that are to be found in the best English Poets. By Edw. Bysshe, Gent. Printed for R. Knaplock at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-Yard, E. Castle next Scotland-Yard-Gate by White-Hall, B. Tooke at the Middle-Temple-Gate in Fleet-street, and S. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.

A Discourse on Fornication: Shewing the Greatness of that Sin; and examining the Excuses pleaded for it, from the Examples of Antient Times. To which is added, an Appendix concerning Concubinage: As also a Remark on Mr. Busler's Explication of Hebr. xiii. 4. in his late Book on that Subject. By J. Turner, M.A. Lecturer of Christ-Church, London. Printed at the Request of some Gentlemen of that Parish. Printed for J. Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

THE Whole Duty of Man Epitomiz'd for the Benefit of the Poor. With Select Prayers suited to every Partition. By Edm. Stacy a Minister of the Church of England in 240. Price 6 d. or 8 s. a score. Printed for John Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry.

Cosmologia Sacra: Or a Discourse of the Universe as it is the Creature and Kingdom of God. Chiefly written to Demonstrate the Truth and Excellency of the Bible, which contains the Laws of his Kingdom in this Lower World. In Five Books. By Dr. Nehemiah Grew. Sold by J. Robinson at the Golden Lion in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

The New State of England, under our present Sovereign Queen Anne. In three parts. Containing, I. A General Account of England. With a particular Description of its several Counties, Cities, Universities, Markets, and Borough-Towns: And a Survey of Wales. II. Of the Original, Temper, Genius, Trade, Religion and Government of the English. Of the Queen's Prerogative, Power, Court, and Revenues, &c. Of the Nobility and Gentry, Clergy and Commonalty. With a Succinct History of the Kings and Queens of England, to this Time. III. A Description of the High Court of Parliament, Privy Council, and all Courts of Judicature. The Fourth Edition, with a Supplement of the New Establish'd Officers in Church and State, to September 1702. And a List of the present Parliament. Printed for H. Morlock at the Phoenix in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

ANALYSIS Aequationum Universalis, seu ad Aequationes Algebraicas resolvendas Methodus generalis & expedita, ex nova infinitarum Serierum Methodo, deducta ac demonstrata. Editio secunda cui accessit Appendix de Infinito Infinitarum Serierum progressu ad Aequationum Algebraicarum Radices eliciendas. Cui etiam annexum est, de Spatio reali, seu Ente infinito Conamen Mathematico-Metaphysicum. Autore Josepho Raphson A. M. & Reg. Soc. Socio. Prostant Venales apud T. Bennet in Cæmeterio D. Pauli.

THE New Practice of Chirurgery: Being a Methodical Account of divers eminent Observations, Cases and Cures, very necessary and useful for Surgeons, in the Military and Naval Service. By Hugh Ryder, Surgeon, in London. The Second Edition, with the Addition of a Supplement of several Chapters. Printed for John Taylor at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

L O N D O N Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.